Applicant's Signature & Date

This form has been given to you as one who is familiar with the above applicant's personality and skills, and we would be very grateful for your objective assessment of his/her suitability for this position. If you do not feel able to give an objective assessment, and/or are a relative of the applicant, please do not complete this form, but return it to the applicant or to Wisconsin Youth Company.

Being a camp staff member at Wisconsin Youth Company involves working with children between the ages of 5 to 16 for up to eleven weeks. The ideal staff member must like and be comfortable with children, be warm, caring and have a good sense of humor, as well as being untiringly energetic, organized, flexible, outgoing, and a responsible employee. As you can see, this job requires a special person! Those who are suited to the job derive immense benefit and enjoyment from it, especially if they are planning to work with young people in the future.

We assess the applicant at an interview, but no interview can provide a complete picture. Your help is needed. Please respond bearing in mind the applicant's important role of working with children. We thank you very much for your time and consideration. Your promptness is important to the applicant as some positions fill early. Offers of employment begin in January for the upcoming summer.

Sincerely,

Jason Anderson
Camp Programs Director
